NEWS RELEASE

1985 Murder Suspect Arrested

On March 22, 1985, San Antonio Police responded to 219 Third St (Anybody's Game Room) for a Murder call. When officers arrived, they discovered Jose Brandt, 02-03-55, dead from an apparent gunshot wound. The investigation revealed that two men, one of whom was later identified as Wilfredo Vicedo, walked into the game room, and according to witnesses, Vicedo climbed a ladder going to a loft and pulled out a handgun and shot Mr. Brandt while he was asleep. It is reported that the motive for the murder was drug related.

In 1986, Detectives with the San Antonio Police Homicide Unit filed a murder case with the Bexar County DA's Office, listing Wilfredo Vicedo as the person who committed the murder. A murder warrant was subsequently issued for the suspect.

On Wednesday, 01-31-07, members of the TRU-Gang unit made a traffic stop at IH 35 frontage Rd. and Goldfield. Vicedo was found in the vehicle and gave one of his many aliases. He denied being in San Antonio or having anything to do with this murder. The diligence and persistence of the officers involved in the traffic stop eventually led to the identification of Vicedo as the person named in the warrant and to his arrest. Vicedo was turned over to the Bexar County Warrant officers and booked for Murder.

Suspect- Vicedo, Wildredo Marrero L/M 05-15-55
